How to use cable chart

■ The table at left shows channel numbers for American Cablevision and Comcast Cablevision subscribers. Match the vertical column for your cable company with the horizontal column for the channel you want to find.

How to set up VCR Plus

■ If you do not have cable, use this table to program VCR Plus for broadcast channels 42 and 59.

■ If you have cable, find the column for your cable company on the table.

■ Lift the top cover of VCR Plus.

■ Press CH. Your display will look like this:

Guide CH TV CH

■ Press the channel number from the column for VCR Plus.

■ Press the number for the same channel from the column for your cable company.

■ Press ENTER.

■ Repeat these steps for each channel you wish to add.

■ Press SAVE.

FOR VCR PLUS USERS

The numbers after television listings are for VCR Plus. The device automatically triggers a VCR to record a specific program when that show's code number is punched in.

If a VCR Plus code is not listed for a show you want to record, you can find out the code by calling (800)

432-1VCR. You'll need to know the channel, date, start time and length of the program. There is a charge of $1 per call. The Channel Finder chart above will help in setting up your VCR Plus. If you have trouble programming your VCR Plus unit, call (800) 432-1VCR.
